The Truth Will Set You Free

None of us like to hear the truth, especially when it hurts. Who likes to be told that they are on the wrong track? Who wants to hear that things in the garden are far from rosy?

We shy away from these things. The reason is obvious, The Truth Hurts.

Consequently we can only take truth in small doses. Few people are prepared to tell the truth. They do not want to upset or hurt us. And yet, the truth is the only thing that saves us; the only thing that will set us free.

But remember there is an art in telling the truth. That art consists in being totally honest and totally kind at the same time.

The person who, out of love for us tells us the truth is at great risk, knowing full well that it is going to hurt and risk the loss of a friendship. These are our true friends...
