

In our continued commitment to transparency and good stewardship, we are sharing our parish Profit & Loss Statement with you. We want our parishioners to remain informed about the financial health of our church and how your generous contributions help support the ministries and needs of St. Ann Parish. As you can see there has been a decline in the last years offerings. Please know how important your offerings are to our parish.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that God invites each of us to share in His heavenly banquet. His invitation is open to all, but we must be willing to accept it with faithful and loving hearts. Just as the wedding guests were called to prepare themselves, we too are called to clothe ourselves in kindness, forgiveness, and faith. May we never become too busy with the distractions of life to answer God's invitation. Let us strive each day to live as true disciples of Christ, ready to enter the joy of His Kingdom. God's invitation is always open. The question is, will we answer His call?
